

Bryn M. Allen

Associate

bmallen@foley.com

Milwaukee

414.297.5374

Bryn Allen is a law graduate with Foley & Lardner LLP and a member of the firm's Transactions Practice.

Before joining Foley, Bryn clerked for the Office of Special Counsel, where she worked primarily on whistleblower retaliation and political corruption matters. She was Executive Editor of Georgetown's Annual Review of Criminal Procedure — a comprehensive aid for federal criminal procedure published by members of the Georgetown Law Journal — and oversaw the distribution of eleven thousand copies into the legal community. Bryn is a former summer associate at Foley.

Prior to law school, Bryn interned for Congressman Mike Gallagher (WI-08) and a political think tank in Washington, D.C.

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Transactions

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 2022)
 - Editor, Georgetown Law Journal
 - Catholic Charities Legal Network (pro bono)
- University of Notre Dame (B.A., magna cum laude, 2019)

Admissions

Not admitted to practice law in any state.