

Patrick J. Bovie

Special Counsel

patrick.bovie@foley.com

Chicago

312.832.4387

Patrick Bovie helps businesses achieve their full potential while staying compliant with current regulations. He has experience assisting business organizations in completing the process to file in Illinois as corporations and limited liability corporations and has also been involved in legal research related to Illinois civil procedure, Federal civil procedure, commercial law, and corporate law. Additionally, Patrick has experience drafting various legal documents, including, motions for summary judgement, motions to dismiss, motions in limine, arbitration opening briefs, and demands for arbitration in corporate and commercial litigation cases.

Presentations and Publications

- Co-author, “Civil Practice: Opening the Case 2023 Edition – Chapter 8: Original Process and Appearance,” Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (2023)

Practice Areas

- Business Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- Litigation

Education

- Chicago-Kent College of Law (J.D., 2022)
 - Phi Alpha Delta Legal Fraternity Mock Trial Outstanding Prosecution Runner-Up, Fourth Place National Finalist
 - Dean’s List (2020)
- University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (B.A., 2019)

Admissions

- Illinois
- S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois