Brandon Christensen is an associate in the Litigation Department with Foley & Lardner LLP. He represents clients in a broad range of commercial disputes, in both state and federal courts. He has defended and prosecuted complex cases regarding breaches of contract, false advertising, unfair competition, intellectual property, fraud, and other business-related issues.

Brandon excels at distilling complicated facts and laws into simple and direct advice, and he is proficient in Mandarin Chinese. Before joining Foley, he worked for the Congressional-Executive Commission on China in Washington, D.C. and provided translation services for Utah companies, in relation to contracts and patent abstracts.
