

Michael A. Gehl
Partner/Retired

Michael A. Gehl is a retired partner with Foley & Lardner LLP. He was a member of the firm's Commercial Transactions & Business Counseling Practice. His areas of practice encompassed a broad range of business and financial matters, including the formation of business entities, buy/sell agreements, employment agreements and executive compensation, aircraft transactions and regulatory compliance, commercial contracts, financing transactions, joint ventures, business combinations, shareholder disputes, and business succession planning. His aircraft-related practice included representing clients in the sale and purchase of new and used aircraft, counseling regarding aircraft ownership structures, and assisting businesses and individuals in entering and exiting fractional ownership programs. He focused his practice on privately owned companies, including manufacturing, distribution and professional services firms. He has chaired the firm's former Private Business Group.

Awards and Recognition

Michael was Peer Review Rated as AV® Preeminent™, the highest performance rating in Martindale-Hubbell's peer review rating system.

Affiliations

- Member, State Bar of Wisconsin

Presentations and Publications

Michael lectured and published articles on various topics, including business succession planning, shareholder buy-sell agreements, equity incentives for employees of privately owned businesses, limited liability companies, the Wisconsin Marital Property Law and the Wisconsin Close Corporation Law.

Education

- University of Wisconsin (J.D., cum laude, 1974)
 - Elected, Order of the Coif

- Dartmouth College (Bachelor's degree, magna cum laude, 1969)