

Angelique K. Howard

Associate

akhoward@foley.com

Jacksonville

904.359.8703

Angelique Howard works in our Business Litigation and Dispute Resolution Practice Group and practices in all facets of commercial litigation. Her practice is primarily focused on representing clients in complex matters in both state and federal courts as well as in various modes of alternative dispute resolution.

Prior to joining Foley & Lardner LLP, Angelique worked as a judicial extern for the Honorable Chief Judge Mark E. Walker in the U.S. Northern District of Florida. She also worked as a summer associate in Foley's Jacksonville office.

Representative Experience

- Obtained multiple AAA arbitration awards for Fortune 200 company in arbitrations for breach of commercial loan agreements.
- Enforced over $2 million judgments for Fortune 200 company in various state courts.

Awards and Recognitions

- Epstein Becker Green's 24th Annual Health Law Writing Competition, Second place
- Candidate's Award, for demonstrating dedication to the growth of staff editors of Law Review
- Best Subsciter of the Year 2022-2023, Journal of Land Use & Environmental Law

Affiliations

- Member, Jacksonville Bar Association
- Member, Jacksonville Federal Bar Association
- Member, Jacksonville Women Lawyers Association

Presentations and Publications

- Author, "The Impacts of Cruises on the Ocean: What Has COVID-19 Changed?", ABA SECTION ENV'T, ENERGY, & RES. (Spring 2022)

Practice Areas

- Business Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- Labor & Employment
- Litigation

Education

- Florida State University College of Law (J.D., magna cum laude, 2023)
 - Dean's List (All semesters)
 - Article Editor, Florida State University Law Review
 - Book Awards: Legislation and Regulation; Health Law & Policy; Corporations; Law & Economics; Professional Responsibility
 - Member, Moot Court
 - Article & Notes Editor, Journal of Land Use and Environmental Law
 - Founding Member; Vice President, Asian Pacific American Law Student Association (APALSA)
 - Secretary, Student-Animal Legal Defense Fund (S-ALDF)
- University of Florida (B.A., cum laude, 2019)
 - Major in Economics
 - Minors in Family, Youth and Community Sciences, Agricultural and Natural Resource Law, and Agricultural and Natural Resource Ethics and Policy

Admissions

- Florida