

Emily J. Lang

Associate

elang@foley.com

Orlando

407.236.5876

Emily Lang practices in all facets of commercial litigation and is an experienced advocate who has tried several cases to verdict. She has represented individuals, public, and private companies in a variety of matters across the nation. Emily is a member of the firm's Business Litigation & Dispute Resolution Practice.

Previously, Emily served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Richard W. Story of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia. As a law student, she was a student attorney with Harvard Law School's Cyberlaw Clinic. She also worked as a summer associate in Foley's Orlando office.

Presentations and Publications

- "Florida Supreme Court Reiterates Frye as Expert Evidence Standard," The Florida Bar Trial Lawyers Section (Winter 2018)

Sectors

- Racial Justice & Equity

Practice Areas

- Business Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- Construction
- Litigation

Education

- Harvard Law School (J.D., 2018)
 - Line Editor, Harvard International Law Journal
 - Research Assistant, Criminal Justice Policy Program
- Stetson University (B.A., magna cum laude, 2014)

Admissions

- Florida