Mitchell Lindstrom is a senior counsel with Foley & Lardner LLP. He is a member of the firm's Transactions Practice Group and Health Care Practice Group.

Mitchell maintains a comprehensive transactional practice, with a focus on mergers and acquisitions, private equity, and corporate governance matters. Mitchell has significant and particular experience representing clients in the health care space, including hospital systems, providers, medical device companies, life sciences companies, and health care information technology companies. He regularly counsels clients in mergers, acquisitions, dispositions, joint-ventures, reorganizations, and recapitalizations, including strategic enterprises, private equity firms, and family-owned and other closely held businesses.

Mitchell also serves as outside general counsel to a number of companies, including private equity portfolio companies, advising on all matters of corporate and health care law.

Prior to joining Foley, Mitchell was a corporate associate at a prominent Milwaukee-based law firm, where he also served as a summer associate. Mitchell also worked as a legal intern in the Office of the Chief Counsel of the Internal Revenue Service and was a law clerk in the corporate legal department of Emerson Electric.
