Rachel Powitzky Steely is a skilled trial lawyer who helps companies protect their technology, confidential information and workforces, and assists executives during career transitions that may lead to litigation. Rachel is a go-to trial lawyer for clients nationwide, having tried cases in multiple jurisdictions involving highly contentious and bet-the company litigation.

Rachel has been recognized as one of the top 50 female lawyers in Texas, selected as a Houston elite 100 lawyer, and was named a top 20 female trial lawyer by Texas Lawyer Magazine, the only trade secret/employment attorney to receive the honor. Rachel was awarded the Trendsetter award from the National Law Journal for her trial work and selected as a breakthrough leader by the Houston Women's Chamber of Commerce. Rachel's trial experience includes employment, commercial, corporate, and insurance matters.

Rachel is regularly recognized by Best Lawyers and Chambers and has been a Texas Super Lawyer for more than 20 years. She was named Houston Business Journal's Outstanding Business Leader in Professional Services and selected for Who's Who in Energy. She is a former student investigator for the Wage and Hour Division of the U.S. Department of Labor and is Board Certified, Labor & Employment Law, by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. She serves as vice chair of the firm's Labor & Employment Practice, of which the firm's national and Houston office groups have been recognized by Best Lawyers as Tier 1 practices.

Rachel is highly skilled in the field of unfair competition litigation, and has extensive experience representing clients in prosecuting and defending expedited proceedings seeking emergency injunctive relief related to noncompetes, trade secret theft and embezzlement, which allows her to provide quick, strategic and efficient representation for companies and executives.

Rachel also has particular proficiency in wage and hour litigation and a wide variety of employment matters, including disability laws; discrimination, retaliation and harassment; executive agreements; OSHA and safety; terminations, hiring and layoffs, and severance agreements. She maintains an active trial docket while also providing the necessary preventative counseling to help clients avoid costly litigation.

Rachel Powitzky Steely is an experienced trial lawyer specializing in commercial and employment litigation. Rachel has particular expertise in expedited proceedings (restraining orders and injunctions, particularly in the intellectual property/trade secret area). Rachel's experience in managing large trial teams under strenuous deadlines, cross-examination, and closing argument have earned her the reputation as a go-to trial attorney with the ability to enter cases late at the trial stage. Rachel has led large trial teams in expedited proceedings handling several terabytes of data, dozens of depositions and forensic review under severe time limitations. She is able to quickly assemble litigation teams to efficiently tackle issues. Rachel has been recognized for over 10 years as one of Texas's foremost female trial lawyers. In 2024, Rachel was awarded the Corporate Counsel/Law.com's Women, Influence Power in Law and recognized as a breakthrough leader by the Greater Houston Women's Chamber of Commerce. Rachel was also recognized as one of Texas's top 20 female trial lawyers by Texas Lawyer Magazine and has been selected a Top 50 Female trial lawyer or Top 100 Houston lawyer by Super Lawyers for several years. She has been a Texas Super Lawyer for over 20 years. In addition, Rachel was named Law Trailblazer by the National Law Journal in September 2023. She was selected by the Houston Business Journal as the inaugural Women Who Means Business Award for legal services in 2017. Rachel has been ranked by Chambers, Best Lawyers, and the Legal 500 for many years. She has also worked to promote the Texas and Houston employment group to become recognized by Chambers and Best Lawyers for several years.
