

Mai-Anh Tran

Associate

mtran@foley.com

Los Angeles
213.972.4620

Mai-Anh Tran helps corporate clients across a wide range of industries navigate a variety of disputes.

Prior to joining Foley, Mai-Anh was a judicial extern for the Honorable Mark D. Houle at the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Central District of California, where she reviewed motions, prepared summaries of legal arguments, and drafted memoranda and tentative court rulings. Before attending law school, Mai-Anh worked as a Production Artist at a cultural arts museum in Orange County, California, producing design and marketing materials for permanent galleries and special exhibitions.

Languages

- Vietnamese (native)
- French (intermediate)

Practice Areas

- Business Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- Litigation

Education

- UCLA School of Law (J.D., 2022)
 - Moot Court Honors
 - Specialization in Media, Entertainment, and Technology Law and Policy
 - UCLA Law Faculty Scholarship for Underrepresented Students of Color (2019)
 - Chief Managing Editor, UCLA Women's Law Journal
 - Managing Editor, UCLA Journal of Law and Technology
 - Internal Vice President, First Generation Law Students Association
 - Social Committee Member and Peer Mentor, Asian/Pacific Islander Law Students Association
- California State University, Fullerton (B.A., summa cum laude, 2017)

- Double major in History and Communications with a concentration in Advertising
- University Honors
- History B.A. Commencement Speaker
- President's Scholar (Full-Tuition Academic Scholarship)
- Dean's Scholar for the College of Communications (Academic Scholarship)
- J. William Maxwell Outstanding Communications Student (2017)
- Outstanding Student in Advertising (2017)

Admissions

- California