

Francis E. Zeiger

Chief Administrative Officer

fzeiger@foley.com

Chicago

312.832.5392

Fran Zeiger is the firm's Chief Administrative Officer, handling all operational planning and oversight of the firm's administrative operations. Fran has primary responsibility for office administration and operations as well as the firm's outsourced functions. He works closely with the chief executive team to ensure organizational effectiveness and efficiency across all administrative areas.

Fran is an accomplished legal administrator with over 20 years of experience in law firm management and operations. Prior to joining Foley, he served in several senior management roles at two AmLaw 100 law firms. He is also a veteran of the United States Marine Corps.

Fran holds a master's degree in business administration and is a certified facilities management professional (FMP) with the International Facilities Management Association. He is also a certified legal manager (CLM) with the Association of Legal Administrators.

Education

- Saint Xavier University (MBA)
- Chicago State University (M.A.)
- Illinois State University (B.S.)

Sectors

- Racial Justice & Equity