September 18, 2024

President of United States

Kamala Harris (D)

Wisconsin's 10 electoral college votes could determine the election.

Arizona (11), Georgia (16), Michigan (15), Nevada (6), North Carolina (16), Pennsylvania (19), Wisconsin (10).

Donald Trump (R)

2016 = Trumps bests Clinton by 22,748 votes (.8%)

2020 = Biden bests Trump by 20,682 votes (.6%)

Marquette University Law School Poll (8/28 – 9/5) Harris 52% Trump 48%

RealClear Politics as of September 18 = Harris +1.2%

Nationally = Harris +2% - Top battlegrounds = tied

United State's Senator

Wisconsin's U.S. Senate election could determine control of Senate.

Current makeup = Republicans 49, Democrats 48,
Independents 3 (they caucus with Dems giving them a 51-49 majority).

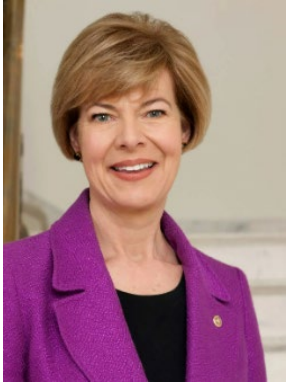

33 of 100 Senate seats are up in 2024.

Tammy Baldwin seeking her third 6-year term in Senate.

Eric Hovde is a Wisconsin businessman. Candidate in 2012 GOP primary for this Senate seat.

Marquette University Law School Poll (8/28 – 9/5) Baldwin 52% - Hovde 48%

RealClear Politics as of September 18 = Baldwin +5.2%

Tammy Baldwin (D)

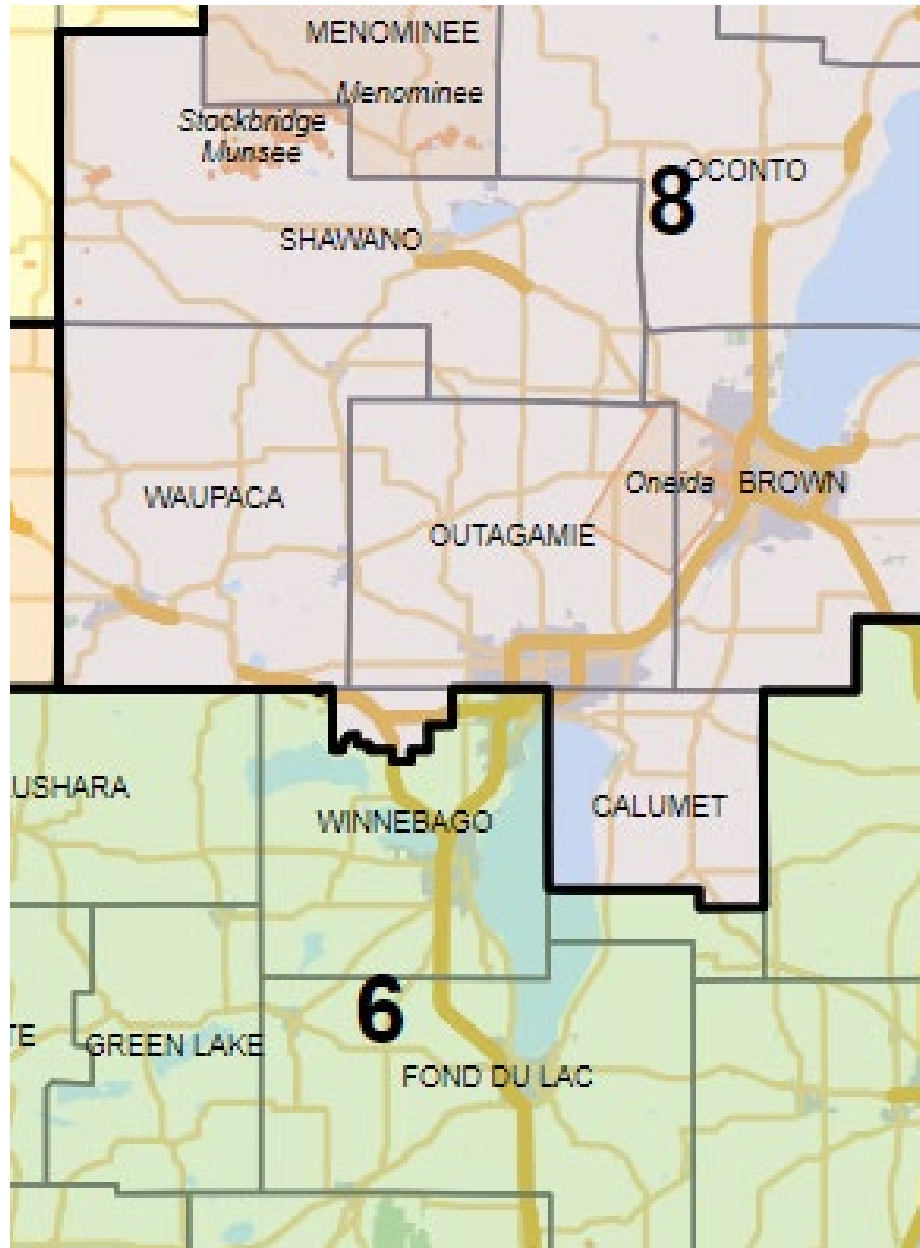

Eric Hovde (R)

United State's House of Representatives

While all eight Congressional seats have elections, three are being closely watched.
